13 Be it ordained by the People of the City and County of San Francisco:

14 Section 1. Findings.

15 (a) In 2011, 2,928 people died from firearm-related injuries in California and 2,884 16 other people were hospitalized for non-fatal gunshot wounds. In 2011, 1,356 homicides were 17 committed with firearms in California. The City and County of San Francisco has a strong 18 interest in protecting its citizens from gun violence. The City has enacted a common sense 19 licensing scheme for the sale of firearms and ammunition aimed at reducing gun violence in 20 San Francisco.

21 (b) A 2009 study found that cities in states that comprehensively regulate retail 22 firearms dealers and cities where these businesses undergo regular compliance inspections
23 have significantly lower levels of gun trafficking than other cities. A national study of gun 24 trafficking investigations in 2000, found that corrupt retail gun dealers accounted for more 25 guns diverted into the illegal market than any other single trafficking channel. A 2003 study revealed that more than half of dealers surveyed were willing to make a "straw sale," where one person unlawfully buys a gun intended for another. In a 2010 study of California firearm dealers, 20% were willing to participate in a straw sale.

1 (c) In 2006, New York City conducted an undercover sting operation that revealed 2 27 gun dealers facilitating illegal sales of firearms that were later used for criminal purposes in 3 the city. New York brought a lawsuit against these dealers, many of whom agreed to settle 4 the case by stipulating to a number of changes to their business practices to reduce the illegal 5 sale of guns. Such changes included the use of in-store observation, including use of 6 videotape surveillance, and records monitoring. A study that compared the number of 7 weapons recovered by the New York Police Department originating in the stores that were 8 parties to the settlement before and after the settlement revealed a significant drop in guns
9 from those stores used in crimes after the settlement and imposition of the new business 10 practices.

11 (d) Gun violence is frequently perpetrated by individuals who are not legally 12 permitted to possess a firearm due to prior criminal convictions or other restrictions. Criminals
13 sometimes obtain guns through firearms dealers who do not conduct the proper background 14 check or who do not properly control their inventory. Criminals also use false identification to 15 purchase firearms from dealers. Requiring licensed gun dealers to video record gun 16 transactions and areas of the store where guns and ammunition are stored and handled will 17 likely discourage gun traffickers and buyers who use false identification from buying weapons 18 and will also likely discourage theft.
