[Designation of the southeast corner of Filbert and Grant on Sunday, September 22, 2002, as the official Poet's Corner for the City of San Francisco.]

Resolution designating the southeast corner of Filbert and Grant in North Beach as the official Poet's Corner of the City of San Francisco beginning on Sunday, September 22, 2002, and to honor the contribution of poets past and present by approving the installation of a commemorative plaque at this location.

WHEREAS. The City of San Francisco has long supported the arts and has been home to some of America's finest contemporary poets for generations and remains a source of enduring inspiration for all; and

WHEREAS. The City of San Francisco is an acknowledged "poetic center" for both the world's aspiring and accomplished poets, writers and artists of today; and

WHEREAS. The neighborhood of North Beach, known as "the Home of the Beat Generation", is particularly distinguished by its literary and cultural history; and

WHEREAS, The corner of Filbert and Grant holds literary and historical significance in Beat lore and the literary history of San Francisco; and

WHEREAS, City Lights Bookstore, an officially designated historical landmark and center of local poetry, had its early editorial offices as City Lights Publishing House on this very same corner for over 10 years from 1967 to 1978; and

WHEREAS, San Francisco's first Poet Laureate and co-founder of City Lights Bookstore, Lawrence Ferlinghetti, applauds designating this corner as the official site of Poet's Corner; and

WHEREAS, Bob Kaufman Alley, formerly Harwood Alley, is named after legendary Beat poet Bob Kaufman, and was traversed by many poets for decades, and is only a shout away up the tiny Filbert Street steps from the corner of Grant and Filbert; and

WHEREAS, The New Upper Grant Avenue Fall Art Fair, to be held on Sunday, September 22, 2002, is the official event for honoring poets in San Francisco and their contributions to the multi-cultural life of our diverse city now and forever; therefore, let it be

RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors designates the southeast corner of Filbert and Grant Streets as San Francisco's official Poet's Corner beginning September 22, 2002, and

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors approves the installation of a commemorative plaque at the southeast corner of Filbert and Grant to recognize this location for being in the forefront of our literary and cultural development and to honor poets past and present for their immeasurable contributions to this city.
