Sec. 4916 4915. Severability. If any part of this Article, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the remainder of this Article, including the application of such part or provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby and shall continue in full force and effect.

Section 2. Article 6 of Part III of the San Francisco Business and Tax Regulation Code is hereby amended by amending section 6.6-1 to read as follows:

SEC, 6.6-1. REGISTRATION FOR THIRD-PARTY TAXES.

- (a) These additional provisions shall apply to operators under the transient hotel occupancy tax (Article 7), the parking space occupancy tax (Article 9), and the stadium operator admission tax (Article 11), and to service providers under the utility users tax (Article 10) and the emergency response fee (Article 10A).
- (b) Every operator or service supplier engaging in or about to engage in business within the City who is required to collect any of the taxes identified in Subsection (a) shall immediately register with the Tax Collector on a form provided by the Tax Collector.
- (c) Such registration shall set forth the name under which such person transacts or intends to transact business, the location of each of his or her place or places of business in the City and County, and such other information to facilitate collection of the tax as the Tax Collector may require. The registration shall be signed by the owner if a natural person, by a member or partner, in the case of a partnership, or by an executive officer or some person specifically authorized by the corporation to sign the registration, in the case of a corporation.

- after such registration shall issue without charge a certificate of authority to each registrant to collect the tax from the customer, together with a duplicate thereof for each additional place of business of such registrant. Each certificate and duplicate shall state the place of business to which it is applicable and shall be prominently displayed at said place(s) of business therein so as to be seen and come to the notice readily of all customers. Such certificates shall be nonassignable and nontransferable and shall be surrendered immediately to the Tax Collector upon the cessation of business by the operator or service provider at the location named or upon the sale or transfer of the business.
- (e) Where within the 10-day period referred to in Subsection (d) above, the Tax Collector determines that the operator or service provider, or any signatory to the registration statement, or any person holding a 10 percent or greater legal or beneficial interest in said operator or service provider, is not in compliance with any provision of Articles 7, 9, 10, 10A or 11 of Part III of the Municipal Code, the Tax Collector may refuse to issue the certificate.

Further, if any person subject to this Section violates any provision of Articles 7, 9, 10, 10A or 11 of Part III of the Municipal Code or a rule or regulation promulgated by the Tax Collector, including but not limited to failing to maintain accurate registration information, failure to file any return or pay any tax when due, failure to timely respond to any request for information or subpoena, or for any person subject to Article 9 of the Tax Code for failure to comply with the requirements of Article 49 of the Police Code, the Tax Collector may, after serving the affected person with written notice of his or her determination in the manner provided in Section 6.11-2 and an opportunity to be heard pursuant to the notice and review provisions of Sections 6.13-1 et seq. and 6.14-1 et seq., revoke or suspend that person's registration under this Section. The Tax Collector may refuse to issue that person a new certificate of authority or to withdraw the suspension of an existing certificate until the person seeking to re-register has complied with the provisions of Part III of the Municipal Code and corrected the original violation to the satisfaction of the Tax Collector.
