[Commending the Pink Triangle]

Resolution commending Patrick Carney and the organizers of the Pink Triangle for their community leadership.

WHEREAS, The City of San Francisco has a great tradition of supporting art, culture and history and the Pink Triangle is a community effort that encompasses each of these important local contributions; and,

WHEREAS, The Pink Triangle celebrates queer pride while reminding us of the many stories of individuals who wore the pink triangle and were persecuted because of their homosexuality; and,

WHEREAS, At the dismantling of the Pink Triangle after this year's pride festivities, Hossein Sepas, a volunteer for the Pink Triangle installation, was physically assaulted by four men who yelled homophobic slurs; and,

WHEREAS, This assault showed that the homophobia of the 1940's that led to the creation of the Pink Triangle continues today, and that educational efforts like the Pink Triangle installation continue to have great importance for the local community; and,

WHEREAS, Patrick Carney and the organizers of the Pink

Triangle installation deserve citywide recognition for their unique installation that teaches tolerance, the importance of history and cultural pride; now, therefore be it,

RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco commends Patrick Carney and the organizers of the Pink Triangle for their community leadership.
