11 WHEREAS, Renewable energy and energy efficiency are environmentally responsible 12 ways of ensuring a cleaner environment; and

13 WHEREAS, CCSF has embarked upon the development and implementation of large 14 renewable energy and energy efficiency programs under a mandate given by voters in 15 supporting Propositions B & H in the November 2001 elections; and

16 WHEREAS, These propositions authorize the issuance of revenue bonds to implement 17 renewable energy and energy efficiency programs for City municipal, residential, and 18 commercial sectors; and,

19 WHEREAS, The San Francisco Public Utilities Commission and the San Francisco
20 Department of the Environment have responsibility for implementing Propositions B and H; 21 and,

22 WHEREAS, Collaboration has been established through discussions and the 23 foundation for an ongoing relationship has been set; and

24 WHEREAS, the CEC is the primary agency responsible for setting State energy policy 25 and conducts research and development on new energy technologies; and,

Supervisor Maxwell
Public Utilities Commission
BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

1 WHEREAS, CCSF and the CEC agree that a clean, reliable, and affordable energy 2 supply is critical to the prosperity of a community, the well being of its citizens, and the 3 integrity of its environment; and this is clearly stated as a priority in the Mayor's energy and 4 greenhouse gas reduction goals for the City; and

5 WHEREAS, CCSF and the CEC recognize that the City offers an ideal environment in 6 which to demonstrate how cooperative activities between the City and State government 7 can support clean energy and environmental objectives, and to demonstrate how 8 technologies, policies, and resources can be integrated into local solutions that address 9 current and future energy challenges; likewise, a review of the City's energy and 10 environmental policies, procedures, and broad set of local stakeholder involvement can 11 provide understanding to the CEC of how to strengthen its community-based programs; now, 12 therefore, be it

13 RESOLVED, The San Francisco Board of Supervisors authorizes CCSF to sign this 14 Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with the California Energy Commission to obtain 15 support from the CEC for the implementation of the City's renewable energy, energy 16 efficiency, and distributed generation goals.
