

[Approval of Guiding Principles for Determining the Future of Midtown Park Apartments (1415 Scott Street, San Francisco)]

Resolution approving the principles that will guide the City and Midtown Park Apartments' residents in formulating a long-term ownership structure and development plan for Midtown Park Apartments, a 140-unit residential development owned by the City and County of San Francisco.

WHEREAS, The City and County of San Francisco, a municipal corporation, is the owner of "Midtown Park Apartments" located at 1415 Scott Street, San Francisco (Lot 31, Assessor's Block 1099), which real property is currently under the jurisdiction of the Mayor's Office of Housing ("MOH"); and,

WHEREAS, the City currently leases Midtown Park Apartments to the Midtown Park Corporation, a California nonprofit corporation ("Corporation"); and,

WHEREAS, the resident population at Midtown Park Apartments is racially and ethnically diverse and comprised of households with incomes ranging from very low to moderate; and

WHEREAS, the Corporation has created a representative board comprised of residents who currently reside at the complex ("Resident Board"); and,

WHEREAS, the purpose of the City's lease to the Corporation is to ensure that moderate and low-income housing is available to the public; and,

WHEREAS, the lease also empowers the Corporation's Resident Board to oversee the operation of Midtown Park Apartments, providing them with the rights and obligations associated with such oversight including the right to set rents and approve operating budgets,

1 and the obligation to maintain Midtown Park Apartments in good order and repair at all times;
2 and,

3 WHEREAS, in order to continue to house residents in safe, decent, affordable units, 4 Midtown Park Apartments must be substantially rehabilitated; and,

5 WHEREAS, appropriate resources to address the rehabilitation plan still need to be 6 identified; and,

7 WHEREAS, MOH has recommended that the City's ownership of Midtown Park
8 Apartments be terminated as soon as a new ownership structure acceptable to both the City 9 and the Corporation can be determined; and,

10 WHEREAS, the Resident Board is in the process of determining the feasibility of a new 11 long-term ownership structure that could include, but would not be limited to non-profit 12 ownership of affordable rental housing, affordable co-operative ownership and/or affordable 13 condominium ownership; and,

14 WHEREAS, MOH is committed to working with the tenants to complete the planning for 15 a transfer of ownership and substantial rehabilitation of Midtown Park Apartments; and,

16 WHEREAS, any transfer of ownership must be approved by the Board of Supervisors; 17 and now, therefore, be it,

18 RESOLVED, that the Board of Supervisors does hereby approve the following guiding 19 principles for MOH's collaboration with the Resident Board to create an acceptable long-term
20 ownership structure and development plan for Midtown Park Apartments:

- 21 1. To prevent displacement – No tenant will be evicted because his or her income is too 22 high or too low.
- 23 2. To involve tenants – Tenants' input on a viable plan is important and the City is 24 committed to creating forums for the tenants to discuss their ideas and concerns about 25 Midtown Park Apartments with the City.

3. To protect long-term affordability – Creating a development that can be feasibly operated and maintained while keeping housing costs affordable to Midtown Park’s low and moderate income tenants is essential. . The affordability standard used will be consistent with City policy and with other MOH-funded affordable housing. .
4. To explore alternative ownership structures – Working with the Resident Board and other interested tenants, MOH will work with tenants to explore alternatives to the current City ownership.
5. To ensure safe, sanitary and decent housing – MOH will work with the Resident Board to find the funds that are necessary to upgrade the condition of the Midtown Park Apartment's buildings and grounds for the long-term.
